Product Feature And Application of Golden-Leaf valve® Duty Brass 4 Way Hose Manifold Hose Pipe Adapter

★ Instantly create four tap outlets with this ultra-durable hose splitter 4 way connector and eliminate the stress of constantly switching out hoses. It is simple to install and designed to easily accommodate all standard hoses, with the main connector creating a tight seal on water outlets with either metal or plastic threading.

★ You can use this faucet splitter as a garden hose pressure regulator by simply adjusting the brass levers, giving you the perfect flow for watering plants, washing your car, or cleaning the siding.

★ The all-brass construction of the connector hose attachment ensures superior durability to withstand high pressure and all weather conditions without breaking, rusting, or failing.

Application: Fitting in Laundry, Plumbing, Automotive, Nautical, Industrial, and Commercial applications, Patio, Lawn & Garden
